AFFIDAVIT OF CATHERINE JEFFERS

1. My name is Catherine Jeffers. I am over 21 years of age and I am employed with Army Fleet Support, LLC ("AFS"). I currently serve as a Personnel Specialist for AFS's operations at Fort Rucker. I have held my current position since December 1, 2003. The facts in this affidavit are based upon my own personal knowledge and/or review of documents kept in the normal course of business by AFS. The testimony given in this statement is solely in my capacity as an Army Fleet Support, LLC employee.

2. In March 2005, I had responsibility for, among other things, clearing employees back to work after short-term disability leave.

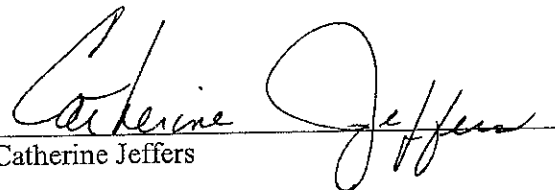

3. Sometime in March 2005, I recall Sam Houston came to the personnel office to process his return to work after a short-term disability leave. Mr. Houston presented a note from his doctor that listed numerous permanent work restrictions. As is customary, I called the field manager over Mr. Houston's area for a determination of whether Mr. Houston could be cleared to return to his position as an Aircraft Mechanic. Mr. Houston's field manager advised me that Mr. Houston could not return to the Aircraft Mechanic position with the restrictions imposed by his doctor. I called the field managers for three other fields at Fort Rucker as well. All three agreed that Mr. Houston could not perform the essential functions of the Aircraft Mechanic position with his restrictions. I advised Mr. Houston of the determination.

4. At some point in the conversation reclassification was mentioned. I asked Jo Ann Camarata, the Personnel Specialist responsible for reclassifications, to join the conversation. In response to Ms. Camarata's statements about reclassification requirements and the fact that his pay would decrease if he reclassified into the Aircraft Scheduler position, Mr. Houston became very upset. I do not recall Mr. Houston requesting a status change request form.

5. To my knowledge, Mr. Houston never submitted a status change request form or verification of his ability to type thirty words per minute, a requirement of the Aircraft schedule position.

6. I have read the foregoing affidavit and it is true and correct.

AFFIDAVIT OF JO ANN CAMARATA

1. My name is Jo Ann Camarata. I am over 21 years of age and I am employed with Army Fleet Support, LLC ("AFS"). I currently serve as a Personnel Specialist for AFS's operations at Fort Rucker. I have held my current position with AFS since December 1, 2003. The facts in this affidavit are based upon my own personal knowledge and/or review of documents kept in the normal course of business by AFS. The testimony given in this statement is solely in my capacity as an Army Fleet Support, LLC employee.

2. As a Personnel Specialist, I am responsible for, among other things, processing reclassifications. Reclassifications are governed by the collective bargaining agreement between AFS and the Union. Each year, numerous employees are moved around through the reclassification procedures.

3. Sometime in March 2005, I recall speaking with Sam Houston regarding his return to work following a short-term disability leave. On one occasion, I recall Lisa Beasley asking me to advise Mr. Houston of AFS's rules on reclassification. I advised Houston that in order to reclassify, an employee must be on active payroll, submit a status change request form, be qualified for the desired position, and have seniority over any other bidders.

4. I also recall discussion about the Aircraft Scheduler position. I advised Houston that the Aircraft Scheduler position has a typing requirement of thirty words per minute, so he would need to supplement his personnel file with certification of his typing ability before he submitted a reclassification request for that position. At that time, AFS accepted typing certification from the Alabama State Employment Office. I do not recall Mr. Houston requesting a status change request form.

5. I recall Houston seemed upset about the requirements for reclassification. As a result, I asked one of the HR managers, Bob Whitney, to speak to Houston. Although I was nearby while Mr. Whitney and Mr. Houston spoke, I was not actively involved in the conversation and did not hear everything that was said. I do recall Mr. Houston was very upset when he left the personnel office.

6. I cannot specifically recall how many conversations I had with Mr. Houston regarding reclassification. It is customary for me to respond to questions about pay rates in lower classifications by responding that the employee will never make more than the maximum pay rate for the lower classification. The Aircraft Scheduler position is a lower classification than the Aircraft Mechanic position.

7. To my knowledge, Mr. Houston never submitted a status change request form or verification of his ability to type thirty words per minute.

8. I have read the foregoing affidavit and it is true and correct.

AFFIDAVIT OF LISA BEASLEY

1. My name is Lisa Beasley. I am over 21 years of age and I am employed with Army Fleet Support, LLC ("AFS"). I currently serve as a Personnel Specialist for AFS's operations at Fort Rucker. I am an employee of AFS. I have held my current position since December 1, 2003. The facts in this affidavit are based upon my own personal knowledge and/or review of documents kept in the normal course of business by AFS. The testimony given in this statement is solely in my capacity as an Army Fleet Support, LLC employee.

2. In March 2005, I had responsibility for, among other things, benefits and insurance. I also had responsibility for processing administrative leave, at that time called administrative terminations, for employees that could not return to work at the expiration of short-term disability leave. I did not have responsibility for reclassifications.

3. Sometime in March 2005, I recall Sam Houston came to the personnel office to process his return to work after a short-term disability leave. I recall discussing reclassification and I advised Mr. Houston that once an employee's short-term disability leave expires, he must return to his last classification before he can be moved to another classification. I explained that I was not completely sure of the reclassification requirements, but would get Jo Ann Camarata to clarify. I asked JoAnn Camarata, the Personnel Specialist responsible for reclassifications, to join the conversation. She advised Mr. Houston of the requirements for reclassification.

AFFIDAVIT OF ELIZABETH LEGIEZA

1. My name is Elizabeth Legieza. I am over 21 years of age and I am employed with Army Fleet Support, LLC ("AFS"). I currently serve as Program Coordinator for Manpower and Staffing. I have held my current position since November 20, 2004. The facts in this affidavit are based upon my own personal knowledge and/or review of documents kept in the normal course of business by AFS.

2. In March 2005, I was starting to assume some responsibility for, among other things, responding to applications for unemployment compensation.

3. One of the first applications I responded to was filed by Sam Houston. At the time I completed the Company's initial response, I mistakenly thought Mr. Houston had voluntarily resigned because of medical problems. I was later advised that Mr. Houston was actually still an employee on extended medical leave.

4. In order to correct this mistake, we appealed the Department of Industrial Relations determination that Mr. Houston was eligible to receive benefits.

5. In early May 2005, I was out on military leave. I am a member of the Alabama National Guard. I now understand that I missed the hearing for AFS's first appeal of Houston's unemployment compensation benefits while I was out.

7. I did not have any further involvement in AFS's response to Houston's benefits application until I was invited to attend the hearing in front of the Board of Appeals as a learning experience.

8. At no point during this process did I have knowledge of any allegations of discrimination by Mr. Houston. Around the time of the hearing before the Board of Appeals, Mr. Whitney did mention to me, in general terms, that Mr. Houston was unhappy with what happened when he attempted to return to work.

AFFIDAVIT OF EDWIN B. BROWN

1. My name is Edwin B. Brown. I am over 21 years of age and I am employed with Army Fleet Support, LLC ("AFS"). I currently serve as Manager, Human Resources for AFS's operations at Ft. Rucker. I have held my current position for about a year. The facts in this affidavit are based upon my own personal knowledge and/or review of documents kept in the normal course of business by AFS.

2. In 2005, I was Recruiter and HR Development Manager. I had responsibility for, among other things, responding to unemployment compensation applications, although these responsibilities were being transitioned to a new employee, Elizabeth Legieza. I was her immediate supervisor.

3. On March 18, 2005, AFS received notice that Mr. Houston, an inactive employee, had filed a claim for unemployment compensation with the Alabama Department of Industrial Relations ("DIR"). See Exhibit 1. Ms. Legieza prepared AFS's response to Mr. Houston's unemployment compensation application. I did not have any have any involvement in this initial response.

4. The Alabama Department of Industrial Relations ("DIR") approved Houston's application on April 8, 2005. See Exhibit 2. At this point, I learned that Ms. Leguiza had mistakenly responded that Houston had voluntarily quit.

5. Ms. Legieza and I discussed her mistake and filed an appeal of the DIR's initial determination on April 22, 2005. See Exhibit 3. In support of the appeal, we explained that Mr.

Houston should be disqualified because he was still employed by AFS and was out on an extended medical leave of absence.

6. AFS's appeal was set for hearing on May 5, 2005. See Exhibit D. AFS inadvertently missed the May 5, 2005 hearing because Ms. Legieza was out on military leave and did not receive timely notice of the hearing. As a result, the Administrative Hearing Officer ("AHO") denied AFS's appeal on May 12, 2005. See Exhibit 5. I prepared an appeal of this decision and transmitted it to the Alabama DIR on May 23, 2005. See Exhibit 6. As I could not attend the hearing, I asked Bob Whitney, AFS's Human Resources Compliance Officer, to attend as the company representative. Ms. Legieza attended the hearing with Bob as a learning experience. We subsequently received notice that the DIR deemed Mr. Houston ineligible for benefits.

7. At the time the initial response and appeals letters were prepared, I had no knowledge of any complaints made by Mr. Houston regarding alleged disability discrimination. Around the time of the second appeal, I did receive a telephone call from someone who stated he was with the Veterans Administration and he was calling to give me a "heads up" that Mr. Houston had filed a complaint of veteran's discrimination. I discussed with this individual the fact that nearly half of AFS's workforce is comprised of veterans. He did not give me any additional details regarding Mr. Houston's complaint. I was not told that Mr. Houston was making allegations of disability discrimination. I advised my supervisor, Darlene Whelan, of the telephone call. At the time I received this call, the decision to appeal the AHO's determination regarding Mr. Houston's unemployment compensation benefits had already been made. In fact, that decision was made as soon as I received notice of the AHO's decision and the fact that we had inadvertently missed the hearing for AFS's first appeal.

8. I did not have any involvement in responding to a request from Bill Grosvenor and Ken Manne for information regarding Mr. Houston's attempt to return to active work in March 2005.

9. I did have some involvement in the preparation of the company's response to Mr. Houston's EEOC charge. My involvement was well after the appeals to the DIR, however.

10. Bonnie Swafford was a Personnel Specialist with AFS. She had the responsibility for directing individuals that make telephone inquiries to the AFS personnel office to the HR staff member responsible for the area at issue. Ms. Swafford's telephone number is one of the main numbers for the personnel office. Ms. Swafford did not have any responsibility for or authority to make a response to the Alabama DIR regarding applications for unemployment compensation benefits.

11. I have read the foregoing affidavit and it is true and correct.
